

PRESS RELEASE

LAKE-SUMTER COMMUNITY COLLEGE'S POPULAR KIDS' COLLEGE STARTS IN CLERMONT
JULY 13 AND JULY 27

LEESBURG (June 30, 2009) - If you want your children to have a fun, yet educational summer experience, sign them up for Lake-Sumter Community College's Kids' College.

Two two-week camps will be offered in Clermont at East Ridge Middle School, Mondays through Thursdays, starting July 13 through July 23, and again July 27 through August 6. Parents can choose half-day sessions from 9 a.m. until 12:15 p.m. or 12:45 through 4 p.m., at a cost of $90 each, or a full eight days for $180. Working parents can take advantage of late care until 5:30 p.m. for only $32 for eight days.

Children ages seven through fourteen years old can choose to participate in sports such as basketball, archery, flag football, soccer, volleyball, as well as other active classes in baton twirling, dance, drill team and cheerleading. The artistic minded will enjoy acting, crafts, writing, scrapbooking, photography, painting, beading, even bridge and miniature golf course building. Fun and practical classes include culinary arts, web design, podcasting, money management, Spanish, sign language, geography and literature, as well as unique offerings like archeology, chemistry, magic, Harry Potter and rockets.

Seventh through ninth grade students can enroll in classes created just for their age group in drill team or dance, leadership, photography, basketball, creative writing and literature.

Visit LSCC's website at www.lsc.edu and "Quick Links" Kids' College for the Clermont schedule and registration form. For additional information call 352-365-3556.
